WASHINGTON.

Mrs. C. H. Johannessen is not so well and is again confined to her bed.
Mrs. E. M. Eastman, who has been confined to the house for a long time, is slowly improving.
L. W. Seaver is confined to the house with a serious trouble with an abscess on the back of his head.
C. H. Johannessen has begun saving lumber for Slocum brothers. He has his steam sawmill set up on land of D. P. Magoon, where he has an extensive job.
The officers of the Washington grange were installed Friday evening, at which time about 100 grangers were in attendance. An oyster supper was served, to which all did justice.
Mrs. William W. Brame is at the hospital in Burlington, where she underwent a serious operation Thursday. Her friends will be pleased to hear that this operation was successful and she is now comfortable as can be expected.
At the public installation of the I. O. O. F. Thursday evening, the hall was well filled. The installing officers were Deputy Grand Master Greene of Randolph and Deputy Grand Marshal Campbell of the same town. After the installation, refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, doughnuts, cake and coffee. Then dancing was in order until twelve o'clock.

A Wretched Mistake

To endure the itching, painful distress of piles. There's no need to. Listen: "I suffered much from piles," writes Will A. Marsh of Silver City, N. C., "till I got a box of Buckle's Arnica Salve, and was soon cured." Burns, boils, ulcers, fever sores, scalds, cuts, chapped hands, chilblains, vanish before it. 25c at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Mrs. Hiram S. Drury seems to be gaining somewhat in health nowadays.
The third child, and the third daughter, was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Downs.
The patrons of our village creamery received 30 cents per pound for butter last Monday.
Miss Josie Hibbard is staying in the house of Mrs. Alpheus Hibbard, who has gone to Northfield for the winter.
Rev. J. Edward Wright of Montpelier will preach again at our Universalist church Sunday morning, January 30.
To-day is a birthday of Mrs. Roberts of the M. E. parsonage, and she will serve a missionary tea to ladies of the M. E. society.
Dr. E. B. Watson accompanied Mrs. Howard Varney, who lives on the old A. Kinsman Martin farm, to the Boston hospital last week, where she underwent surgery successfully.
Mrs. Carl M. Seaver plans to go at once to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, in Granville, N. Y., where her brother, Howell, is very low with typhoid fever.
Lewis M. Seaver is about to start on his western trip for the National Humane alliance of New York. He will go as far as Omaha, Neb., and return perhaps, by way of western Virginia.
The principal of the normal school at Randolph Center will give a lecture at our Grange hall on Friday evening of this week, January 21, on "Christopher Columbus." No admission fee will be charged, but a collection will be taken at the close of the lecture. We should expect an interesting and instructive lecture, one worthy of a full house.
As was to be anticipated, there was no move on the part of our grange to return to work at the sheds last Monday morning, although the manufacturers had unhurried their doors. We expect that our workmen will be satisfied with nothing else than what will prove acceptable to others in Barre and Montpelier, whatever that may prove to be.
Mrs. Horace E. White, who has been more or less of an invalid for some years from a diabetes trouble, is now confined to her bed. Mrs. Joseph Sanders is caring for her this week. Before her last marriage, Mrs. White was the widow of the late George W. Farnham. She is a native, we think, of Stratford. In the many years that she has lived here, she has been held in high esteem.

There was a good attendance at the temperance meeting at the M. E. church last Sunday evening. The Good Templars were disappointed at the inability of one of their high officials to be here, as they had advertised, but Rev. J. Edward Wright of Montpelier addressed the meeting very ably. There was a fine musical program, vocal and instrumental, and an upward move must have been made here as the result of the delightful service.

It is to be hoped our citizens will keep in mind the next entertainment in our Village Improvement society's course, which will be on Monday evening of next week, January 24, at the Grange hall. The Redpath Lyceum bureau says of Edwin R. Weeks, who is to appear in this entertainment, that "he is the most humorous entertainer available for lyceum work." He gives original monologues, humorous and pathetic recitations, parodies and melodies of his own arrangement, operettas and musical extravaganzas of his own composition, humorous character sketches and last, but not least, impersonations of famous men, past and present. In fact, with his unusual versatility, he is able to give, with the cooperation of two assistants, all the variety usually furnished by half a dozen artists, and to those who enjoy wholesome humor and high class musical features, we highly recommend this company. Two lady violinists accompany Mr. Weeks in this entertainment.

CHELSEA.
A son, and the sixth child, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Baraw Wednesday, January 12th.
Miss Sadie Spooner of Randolph spent last week in town as the guest of her sister, Mrs. O. D. Tracy.
Miss Emma Sargent, housekeeper for Edward O. Matteson, went Saturday to East Brookfield to remain over Sunday with her parents.
Mr. and Mrs. Leslie H. Bohannon entertained as their guest last week, at their home on Maple avenue, Miss Grace Pierson of Manchester, N. H.
Deputy Sheriff O. H. Adams has recently had installed in the new office of the Orange county jail a New England telephone. This, with the People's telephone, makes the jailer's office accessible at all times by phone.
Newell S. Bixby, who has been in a steady decline for several months, died at his home on South Main street Saturday evening at the age of eighty-three years. He is survived by a widow, one son, Charles W. Bixby, who lives in this village, and one daughter, Mrs. Cough, who resides in Massachusetts.
George M. Medcalf has recently sold to Horace T. Walker, a nice pair of gray petchen colts, two and three years old and weighing eleven and twelve hundred pounds respectively. Price, $300.00, and while this price is a low figure, nevertheless it is a substantial indicator that it pays a farmer to own the right kind of a brood mare and keep her raising colts.

Frank G. Carey, who resides on the Sylvanus Hibbard farm in the northwest corner of the town, has had the recent pleasure of a visit from his brother, Austin Howard Carey, who is a corporal in the United States navy. Corp. Carey had just completed his first four years of service in the navy, during which time he has been stationed a part of the time at Havana City and the balance of the time he has been on duty in the canal zone. After spending two weeks with his brother, he left for Norfolk, Va., where he contemplated enlisting for another four years, and expects to be promoted at once to the office of sergeant. The coming four years he expects to see service in Japan, China and the Philippines. He is a sharpshooter and purports to perfect himself in this respect so as to be able to qualify as an expert. During his visit to his brother, he was accompanied by his sister, Miss Grace Carey, of Brattleboro.

SOUTH ROYALTON.

Death of Charles Daggett After Painful Illness.
Charles Daggett, who had lived in this place the past three years, passed away Thursday morning after a long and painful illness of Bright's disease, and the funeral was held from the Methodist church Sunday and was largely attended; the Masons attending in a body, and the Masonic service being conducted by Dr. E. J. Fish. Mr. Daggett leaves a wife and a host of friends to mourn his loss. The interment was here, in the village cemetery.
Miss Addie Joyce of Sharon is working for W. C. Belknap.
Charles Southworth was in West Lebanon, N. H., last week on business.
Charles Sargent, who has been in poor health for the past year, is said to be failing.
Mrs. Ada Spaulding was called to Barnard last week by the severe illness of her mother.
Warren J. Bright and wife returned Saturday from Boston, where they have been visiting their daughters the past three weeks.
Miss Lucy Prescott, who has been spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Charles Sargent, returned to Boston Saturday.
Mrs. W. C. Salter, who has been working for Mrs. Mary Talbot, has gone to Claremont, N. H., and a girl from Tunbridge is taking her place.
J. H. Hewitt has his new mill completed and in full operation. The mill is equipped with all the latest machinery for the rapid handling of grain and grinding.
The lecture given Friday night at the Congregational church by Hon. M. S. Stone, state superintendent of education, Howard L. Hildes, editor of the Rutland Herald, and Willis C. Belknap, editor of the Windsor Journal and Bellows Falls Times, on the "New Vermont," was largely attended.

WEST TOPSHAM.

Frank Davis, Civil War Veteran, Injured by Falling.
Frank Davis, a war veteran, went to Dr. Dow's office to get some medicine, and, in coming out of the house, took the wrong door and fell to the cellar bottom, cutting his head quite badly and injuring his back. Frank says he made better time going down than he did coming back.
Miss Clara Young is working at C. G. Meeker's.
Charles Butler has gone to Lancaster, N. H., to work.
Miss Florence Noyes of Orange visited in town Sunday.
Dr. J. A. Dow was in Burlington several days last week.

The local friends of Benjamin Buzell, the mail carrier, extend their sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Buzell in their recent bereavement in the death of their youngest child, who died Monday of last week.
Local friends of M. R. Hanson of Groverton, N. H., will be sorry to hear that he was injured recently, while working in the paper mill. He got one side sore, besides receiving an injury to one hand, which will doubtless lay him up for two weeks or more.

SOUTH CABOT.

Death of Mrs. H. N. Clark, a Resident Here Over Forty Years.
This community was shocked and saddened Thursday to hear of the death of Mrs. H. N. Clark, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. R. Palmer of North Danville. Mrs. Clark was taken ill with the grip three weeks ago and, not being strong, it was too much for her to survive, and other troubles set in, which took her away. She was a woman who was liked and respected by all who knew her, and was of a very quiet disposition. Mr. Clark died four years ago next April. Up to the time of his death they had lived in South Cabot over 40 years.
Mrs. Clark was born in Ryegate 77 years ago, her maiden name being Zerach. She is survived by one brother and the daughter, Mrs. F. R. Palmer, with whom she lived at North Danville, and who tenderly cared for her mother during her last illness. Everything possible was done for her and her every wish gratified.
The funeral was held at the home of Mrs. Palmer Sunday at 1 o'clock and her body was placed in the tomb at St. Johnsbury to remain until spring, when it will be brought to this place for burial. Those from this place who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lamber-ton, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Scribner and Mrs. W. O. Southwick.
Mrs. F. G. Lamber-ton was in Montpelier Friday.
